

HEROINE SAVED LIFE THEN FLED

Strange Girl Dashes Into Room
and Wraps Flame-Enveloped
Woman in Rug, While Neighbors Ran About Helplessly.

The presence of mind and pluck of a strange young woman saved Mrs. Mary Collins, of No. 210 West Sixty-seventh street, from being burned to death to-day, and her burns may yet prove fatal.

Mrs. Collins was bathing her nine-month-old baby in the kitchen beside a gas stove, when her dress caught fire.

The filmy texture blazed up about her head, setting fire to her hair as she tossed the baby from her to a bed. Her screams alarmed the neighbors, who broke into the apartment and found her writhing on the floor. While the frightened women hustled about aimlessly a young girl pushed her way to the kitchen and, catching up a rug, wrapped Mrs. Collins in it, commanding her to shut her mouth and hold her breath.

Then the young woman beat out the fire with her hands and later prepared a lotion for the burns. At the arrival of a surgeon from Roosevelt Hospital, however, she hurried out of the flat and disappeared. The surgeon said that if Mrs. Collins recovered she would owe her life to the girl. None of the tenants of the house had ever seen the stranger before and it is believed that she is a canvasser.

MRS. JOHN T. OAKLEY DEAD.

Wife of Water Commissioner Succumbs to Tuberculosis.

The wife of Commissioner John T. Oakley, of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, died to-day at her home, No. 24 East Thirtieth street.

Mrs. Oakley had been an invalid for nearly three years with tuberculosis. The Commissioner sent her everywhere possible to try and drive away the disease, but in vain. She was a sister of Alderman Patrick J. Higgins, and was born and brought up in the old Seventh Ward.

Prominent physicians assure that in numerous cases patients have been able to take and retain their Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Pepsin and Quinine, although utterly unable to take any other Emulsion or plain Cod Liver Oil. Caswell, Massey & Co.'s Emulsion is far the most nourishing and strengthening. Sold by all druggists.

The First Tuesday of Our Second Great

Comparison Sale

This important event continues with unabated enthusiasm. Monday thousands exclaimed that they never saw such low prices quoted for such high grade merchandise. That's absolutely true, and the same holds good for to-morrow and all the rest of the week. This is not the sale of a day, but one that required months in preparation, and it will continue until every dollar's worth of goods bought especially for it has been sold at these remarkable bargain prices. When comparison sale lots are gone regular prices will be restored. So put off all social engagements and do your shopping while the sale is in progress.

Tuesday Table Day's

Special Combination of

Very Many Great Sales

The Three previous Table Day Sales that we have held have proven Tuesday to be the best bargain day of the week. To-morrow's Table Day Sale will be the most important yet. Many great Tables are devoted to goods offered in this sale, and these tables are located in convenient places on both the First and Second Floors. The Tables are numbered from one up, as mentioned below, and each of the values offered, although here described in small space, on account of their real importance should crowd the departments in which they are offered from the opening to the closing of the Store.

A Handsome Souvenir

Free to Every Woman Visitor Tuesday.

Last Tuesday we offered as a souvenir to visitors 3,000 hand-painted Opal Pin Trays. We stated in the advertisement that we only had 3,000 of them and that when they were gone there would be no more. Just as we anticipated, our patrons thought they were so pretty that they took them all before noon, and in the afternoon, in order not to disappoint those who came too late, we gave pretty art calendars to each visitor as a consolation prize for not being in time to get the regular souvenir of the day.

To-morrow we offer two beautiful books as souvenirs—"The Desirable System of Physical Culture" will be given out in the morning from 8.30 A. M. to 11.30 A. M., or as long as 1,500 of them last. "Homemaking and Housekeeping" will be given out between 2 P. M. and 5 P. M., or as long as 4,000 of these books, and there is no way of getting any more of them when these are gone, and that is why we divide them and limit the quantity. Between the hours of 11.30 A. M. and 2 P. M., or after each lot gives out, we will present visitors with the art calendars as we did last Tuesday. These books are well bound in cloth, and one consists of over 100 pages, fully illustrated, with more than 100 pictures; the other has nearly 400 pages, but not so many illustrations. These books were originally published, we are told, to sell for 50 cents a copy, but we secured them some time since at a much less price, when we bought out the publishing department of a large manufacturing concern.

Free to each woman visitor; none to men and none to children.

Table No. 1—On first floor. Loom Embroideries with wide margins. All cut-out edge and insertings to match. These are in showy and effective designs, every yard which in ordinary circumstances would retail at 12 1/2c; out on table, your choice to-morrow, per yd. 7c

Table No. 2—On first floor. A surplus lot of about 300 Women's Swiss Ribbed Cotton Vests, low neck and no sleeves, good quality, lace, trimmed around the neck and arms. These vests have a slight imperfection in their manufacture. The imperfection is so minute that, without being told, you would never discover it. It does not affect the wear or use of the garment, but the manufacturers cannot sell them as perfect goods; thus to-morrow you have a chance to buy vests which would ordinarily cost you 20c. for just half price. 10c

Table No. 3—On first floor. Fast Black Cotton Stockings, seamless feet, double heels and toes, full width and length. These are made of a nice soft cotton yarn of a very good quality, and very elastic. These stockings were manufactured to sell at retail for 15c. a pair. We secured from a jobber 100 dozen at a special price, which enables us to give them to you to-morrow at 8c

Table No. 4—On first floor. Hemstitched Tray Cloths, made of pure linen, with fancy open work in very neat patterns; sizes 18 to 27 in. These Tray Cloths were manufactured to sell for 30c. each; to-morrow, as a special table day inducement, we put them out for sale at only 19c

Table No. 5—On second floor. Your choice of 90 Couch Covers, three yds. long, made of Oriental tapestry with fancy fringed edges. We bought this odd lot of Couch Covers at just a little more than half of what they would ordinarily sell at wholesale for and we are going to retail them to you in the same way. There is not a one in the lot that would not sell for $1.25; your choice to-morrow 74c

Table No. 6—On first floor. Short lengths of Towelling; some lengths 2 yds.; other lengths up to 6 yds. These are extra heavy, strictly pure linen crash, suitable for dish or roller towels. This quality of crash is yielded everywhere for from 12 1/2c to 15c. As long as 3,000 yds. last you can take your choice to-morrow at 10c

Table No. 7—On first floor. 300 Renais- sance Pieces. A little job lot that we picked up at one-third of usual cost. Some of these are all-over designs, and others have linen centres, all made in pretty styles. The regular retail price of these is from 39c. to 50c. each. As the quantity is small we would advise you to come in the morning. Price while they last 29c

Table No. 8—On first floor. 1,000 Bed Sheets to be sold to-morrow at just 18c. less than they ought to bring; sizes 72 by 90 in. Made from an extra quality of bleached linen finished muslin with seam in the centre. When you see them you will know that they are worth 50c. each, but our price to-morrow is 32c

Table No. 9—On first floor. 150 Untrimmed Dress Hats; also nearly 100 Ready-to-Wear Hats offered to-morrow at $1.95 each, instead of $3 and $4. These hats are new Spring shapes made of chiffon, maline, lace, silk, horsehair, braid straw and Japanese silks. There are very few alike, they having been a manufacturer's sample line of goods intended to retail at $3, $4 and some at $5. (None of these can be sent C. O. D.) Price as long as they last to-morrow $1.95

Table No. 10—On first floor. Good Ribbons at half price. An odd lot of all silk moire Ribbons in many colors, widths from 1 in. to 3 in. Just the things for dress trimmings and hair bows. Price under ordinary circumstances ought to be 12c. a yard, but our price to-morrow will be 6c

Table No. 11—On first floor. Coton Boucotte Neuvaine in pretty Spring designs for shirtwaist suits. This material is 32 inches wide and shows in all the new dark colorings. 900 yards bought 1-3 off and sold at a fraction over 1-3 off. You pay 15c. a yard if not more in nearly all first-class dry goods stores. The price here to-morrow per yard is 9 1/2c

Table No. 12—On first floor. 39c. New styles of the popular shirred peau de cygne in bodice effect, in black, white, light blue, navy and brown colors; 240 of these only, when these are gone there will be no more. These were made to retail at 65c. each. Price to-morrow as long as they last, only 39c

Table No. 13—On first floor. 32 in. Persian Lawns, just the right thing for girls' Summer dresses; quality equal to anything you have recently seen at 10c. a yard. Will be offered to-morrow at 6c

Table No. 14—On first floor. 100 in. Irish Flannel. You remember what a quick selling there was of them a few weeks ago when the first lot was here. These are Union Taffeta Silk Umbrellas, also 36 in.; some with narrow and some with wide tape edge, steel rods, handles consisting of pearl and silver, French gilt and silver, oxidized and French gilt effects. The reason why they don't retail now for $1.25 is because there is a slight drop in the price of the cloth. As we told you before, this drop stitch does not show and you would not realize it if not pointed out to you. There are about 200 and they go to-morrow at 85c

Table No. 15—On first floor. A very lot of these $1.25 Umbrellas for 90c. You remember what a quick selling there was of them a few weeks ago when the first lot was here. These are Union Taffeta Silk Umbrellas, also 36 in.; some with narrow and some with wide tape edge, steel rods, handles consisting of pearl and silver, French gilt and silver, oxidized and French gilt effects. The reason why they don't retail now for $1.25 is because there is a slight drop in the price of the cloth. As we told you before, this drop stitch does not show and you would not realize it if not pointed out to you. There are about 200 and they go to-morrow at 85c

Table No. 16—On second floor. A very lot of good quality Jean, straight front, dip hip, boned with steel, supporters attached, in white and drab. Also new lot of Cielines in mercerized cotton cloth and fancy tape. Dainty pink and blue shades finished with white satin bows. None worth less than 75c. some $1.00. Choice 49c

Table No. 17—On second floor. 30-cent Aprons for 25c. The reason for the reduction is that they are slightly soiled. Made with waist and yoke effect; some circular neck with embroidery ruffles; others with epaulettes over the shoulders daintily trimmed; also with pretty lace and hemstitch effects. Just as good as new when you wash them. Tuesday 25c

Table No. 18—On second floor. A special lot of Shirt Waists in percale, lawn and figured Madras, light, muslin and dark effects. Some of these waists have soft collars and cuffs; others have laundered collars and cuffs. All offered to-morrow at the ridiculous price of 49c

Table No. 19—On second floor. 100 in. Irish Flannel. You remember what a quick selling there was of them a few weeks ago when the first lot was here. These are Union Taffeta Silk Umbrellas, also 36 in.; some with narrow and some with wide tape edge, steel rods, handles consisting of pearl and silver, French gilt and silver, oxidized and French gilt effects. The reason why they don't retail now for $1.25 is because there is a slight drop in the price of the cloth. As we told you before, this drop stitch does not show and you would not realize it if not pointed out to you. There are about 200 and they go to-morrow at 85c

Umbrellas--Men's & Women's--47c.

It's an old saying and a true one—as true to-day as it was twenty years ago—that whatever you buy at Bloomington's you always save money on, and it's generally a substantial saving at that. Here's a 47c. umbrella that stands absolutely alone as the acme of good values. It is of twisted gloria, made on paragon frames with steel rods, and decidedly built for hard wear. Handles include pearl, horn, Dresden and various fancy woods.

At $1.00—Umbrellas of piece-dyed taffeta, made on lock paragon frames with steel rods, all close rolling; 26 and 28 inch sizes for men and women. Good assortment of fancy handles for selection. This is certainly one of the very best values ever offered in umbrellas at $1.00.

At $1.88—Umbrellas of pure silk, all light rolling; on paragon frames with steel rods, case and tassels; fine lot of handles for choice, many worth more than our price for entire umbrella; not an umbrella in the lot worth less than $3.50 to $5.

Main Floor, 50th St. Section.
